"What we need is a cup of understanding, a barrel of love, and an ocean of patience."

Saint Francis de Sales

(FAITH FORMATION

- "Saint for the Week": Saint Francis de Sales. Francis was destined by his father to be a lawyer so that the young man could eventually take his Father's place as a senator from the province of Savoy in France. For this reason Francis was sent to Padua to study law. After receiving his doctorate, he returned home and knew he had to tell his parents of his wish to live a religious life. His father strongly opposed Francis in this, and only after much patient persuasiveness on the part of the gentle Francis did his father finally consent. Francis was ordained and elected provost of the Diocese of Geneva. At 35, Francis became the bishop of Geneva. While administering his diocese, he nonetheless made time to continue to preach, hear confessions, and catechize the children. His gentle character was a great asset in winning souls. Moreover, Francis would become known as a prolific writer. In addition to his two well-known books, the Introduction to the Devout Life and A Treatise on the Love of God, he wrote many pamphlets and carried on a vast correspondence. For his writings, he has been named patron of the Catholic Press. His writings, filled with his characteristic gentle spirit, are addressed to lay people so that we understand that we too are called to be saints. He is the patron saint of journalists, writers and the deaf. His feast day is January 24 and he is recognized as a Doctor of the Church.
